

JOB OPPORTUNITY

- Job Title: Work Leader Location: Rexdale, Ontario
- Reports to: Site Manager Anticipated Start Date: Immediately
- Purpose of position: To supervise the daily activities of the operations facility within the guidelines established by the Site Manager, conforming to all corporate and local policies, programs and budgets.
- Key Accountabilities:
 - Under the direction of the Site Manager support the daily work activities of the plant operators, to ensure their safety, effectiveness, training and emergency preparedness;
 - Guide operator activities, providing appropriate training, in accordance to all company policies and programs with respect to safety, quality & efficiency and to recommend systems that provide the best tools possible for employees to complete their assigned tasks;
 - Assist in maintaining the satisfactory performance and condition of the plant assets, appropriate housekeeping and recommending changes for improvement where necessary;
 - Act as a back up to the Site Manager during their absence from the facility;
 - Knowledge and adherence of all local and corporate policies, programs and procedures including appropriate legislation (OH & S Act) that relate to this area of operations.
- Qualifications will include the following:
 - Behavioral Competencies
 - Team focus
 - Initiating
 - Customer Service Focus
 - Responds with speed
 - Technical competencies
 - Experienced in chemical handling (2-3 years)
 - A high school diploma with a proven ability to learn and adapt to the chemical workplace environment
 - Lead hand experience and/or emergency response experience would be an asset
 - Appropriately trained to all levels of chemical handling (TDG, WHMIS, SCBA, etc.)